BAME Routes into Public Life Mentoring Scheme 2020/21

(BAME - Black, Asian and Minority Ethnic)

Applications now open!

Do you feel disillusioned with Welsh Politics?

Would you like to get more involved in public life and have an impact on the decisions that are made that affect you and your communities?

Funded by Welsh Government, the scheme is part of the All Wales BAME (Black, Asian and ethnic minority) Engagement Programme.

The BAME Routes to Public Life Mentoring Scheme is intended to help ethnic minority/BAME people to develop political skills and increase their impact in public life.

The third round of the scheme will run from 23rd September 2020 until 30th March 2021 and will include:

- 1-1 mentoring with highly influential people;
- Bespoke training sessions at Welsh Government locations;
- A trip to UK Houses of Parliament;
- Optional opportunity to help organise or contribute to EYST's annual conference observing the UN Day for the Elimination of Racial Discrimination.
